

Conservation, Project Management and Cost Consultancy

Project: Country House, Scottish Borders

Description: Surveying Solutions Limited provided conservation, project management and cost consultancy services for the alteration and major refurbishment of this 'B' Listed country house, including rehabilitation of hydro electricity pump house and original stables building. This included obtaining Planning Permission, Listed Building Consent and Building Warrant for the works and specifying and managing the work of contractors and other consultants to deliver a completely rejuvenated building for our clients.

Programme: 60 week contract period

Client: Private Client

